Description

Curved poster holder

Choose the InfoCurve curved poster holder for presenting images, promotions, and messages that you really want to stand out. The elegant convex poster frame is double-sided so you can be sure to catch the attention of passers-by from different directions - and with a substantial stand and base suitable for heavy footfall areas, this really is a brilliant choice for shopping malls, airport shopping concourses and big department stores.

- Double-sided frame with snap-open function for easy poster change
- Poster cover sheet included
- Sturdy pole with slots to add optional literature shelves
- Available in two popular sizes - A1 and 500mm x 700mm (B2)
- Overall height is 6ft

Special orders

For a minimum order of 50 units, an illuminated version can be manufactured to special order. Please contact us for more information and prices.

Additional Information

Curved poster display unit

The Infocurve has a convex curved front - that is, the curve faces outwards and not inwards. This has the effect of 'popping' your display to make it stand out and catch attention.

The poster cover features a magnetic closure plus a snap frame closing bar down each side.

Literature side shelves, if required, should be ordered separately.
