More Information	4 shelf brochure stand with or without a banner arm Brochure stand version with banner arm: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Will accept any typical banner material such as paper, vinyl or fabric of various thicknesses.• Plastic grippers are supplied which clip onto the banner material and then slide into the extruded aluminium banner arm providing a neatly concealed fixing.• The length of the banner is not critical - anything from around 600mm to 1800mm drop looks fine (depending on whether the literature shelves are to be positioned on one side or both sides of the central pole).• Even if you don't have a banner to display consider buying the banner arm version as it can be added (and removed) as and when required.• Sorry, we cannot supply banners but there are plenty of large format printers who can. Consider ordering a double-sided banner or use a simple image that will 'show through' successfully in reverse, depending on the banner material.

Assembly and Installation	Assembly of InfoRack The base and pole are common to other products in our InfoColumn range. The pole (or mast) is attached to the base from below. Fixings are supplied together with a hexagonal key to tighten up securely. Once assembled the base and pole are very sturdy and will take a lot of weight. The top cap of the mast is removed to enable the banner arm and side-shelves to be slid down the appropriate channel from the top and nipped uptight when in position. Again the appropriate Allen key is supplied. Final adjustment or subsequent re-arrangement is possible. The frosted acrylic shelves are secured onto the side support arms with screws, such that it is possible by unscrewing and repositioning to create a tiered (one-sided) or zig-zag display - the latter being ideal for double-sided brochure dispensing. The inclination of the shelves is fixed but they can be located on either side of the mast at any convenient height. Whilst dismantling is possible it is probably more practical to keep the unit assembled and transport in that manner if relocation is required. The banner can be removed or exchanged easily.
