Description

Promote and support England at the World Cup with a novel and eye catching LED sign sporting the message "COME ON ENGLAND". Ideal for televised matches in pubs – can be re-used for other games: Football, Rugby, Cricket etc.

This impressive illuminated England sign lights up brightly when plugged into a standard 13A socket, with the option to add a flasher unit. The letters are each 115mm high and light up brightly so the LED sign can be seen clearly across a large bar or club room – or right across the street (for indoor use).

The sign is supplied as individual letters which snap securely together (also making the electrical contact). The set includes a mains power supply unit stepping down the current to a safe 12V. The letters are red with embedded bright white LED lights. Two suspension kits are included to allow the LED Come on England sign to be suspended or wall mounted.

Choice of 3 Versions - all state 'Come on England':

- A. Message split onto two rows.
- B. Message split onto two rows with flasher unit.
- C. Message on one line with flashing 'England'.

(video opens in a new window). In Version C the flasher unit is to be positioned before the word 'England' in place of an additional spacer. 'Come on' stays permanently lit whereas 'England' can be programmed to flash according to various selectable programmes - or also left permanently lit when the flashing becomes too annoying! Please note the space required for each version. It is worth checking the size of your windows if the flashing England sign is to face the street. Further letters can be purchased to make different signs: for example Well done England (after winning the World Cup!). Requires extra WELL&D. Go on, order these now ... have confidence!
