Description

---

Replacement ink cartridges for large format Epson printers

These cartridges suit the following Epson printers

- Epson Stylus Pro 4000
- Epson Stylus Pro 7600
- Epson Stylus Pro 9600

The 220ml cartridge is double the length of a 110ml cart and therefore sticks out of the printer, this will not effect the performance of the printer you just wont be able to close the ink covers.

Additional Information

More Information

Epson UltraChrome Inks are pigmented inks with high pigment density, resin coating for more stability, an even surface and gloss, high stability on a wide variety of media including fine art, speciality and plain paper.

- Excellent short term stability.
- Low level of Metamerism means that there is almost no change under different light conditions.
- Designed to suit and print on a wide variety of media while maintaining outstanding lightfastness.
- Made for professional display and sales, so retains an excellent level of stability.
- Epson UltraChrome Ink can deliver twice the density of our conventional pigment ink. As a result, it reproduces a larger gamut of colour and deeper blacks.
- Superb water resistant.
