The cool and contemporary design of the Premium quartz grey sign stand makes this stand a must-have for any venue offering corporate and conference events.

Suitable applications for your premium sign stand

This floor sign is intended for indoor use. Short term outdoor use or placement under a canopy or porch is possible. The snap frame includes a clear cover sheet to protect your printed sign or menu from dust and finger marks, but it will not protect paper prints against rain. The sign stand is portable and can be moved easily. The circular metal base and stand are stable and suitable for busy locations. The single, gently curved leg and textured quartz grey colour adds a touch of style to set off your printed media perfectly. Available with an A4 or A3 poster snap frame.
