Double Royal Poster Stand – extra large poster display stand

Improve your advertising impact with our premium Double Royal poster stand – an extra large poster display stand designed to meet the needs of transport hubs and high-traffic environments.

The Double Royal poster stand was initially designed in response to a bespoke order from a major UK train company. Their requirement for a durable, high-visibility display solution to improve passenger communication inspired us to develop this exceptional transport station advertising stand as part of a broader range of display solutions for large spaces.

Key features:

- Extra large display: accommodates Double Royal paper size – 40 inches x 25 inches wide (1016mm x 635mm) – providing maximum visibility for customer information and advertising.
- Robust construction: crafted with durable materials to withstand high-traffic areas, ensuring longevity and stability.
- User-friendly design: heavy-duty hinged covers make poster replacement quick and efficient.
- Movable design: reposition with ease using the separate trolley tool, even when the base is filled.
- Versatile application: ideal for railway stations, bus and coach depots, airports and other high-visibility public spaces.

This extra-large poster display stand has been designed to meet the demanding needs of transport station advertising and communications. The size of the display area ensures your message captures the attention of commuters and visitors alike. The sturdy construction guarantees stability, while the user-friendly design facilitates swift poster replacements, keeping your information and marketing campaigns fresh, up-to-date, and engaging.

Ideal for:

- Transport stations: railway, bus, coach and tube stations seeking durable and effective advertising and information solutions.

- Public venues: airports, exhibition halls, and similar high-traffic environments requiring prominent signage.
- Retail environments: shopping centres and large stores for impactful customer communications.
