Description

Budget friendly indoor sign stand.

This A4 stand is perfect for people who may be cost conscious whilst still wanting a professional-looking and stylish way to display their posters. In a classy matte black finish with a black powder coated snap frame, this will look great in a range of environments for all occasions and requirements.

Our sign stand features a telescopic pole with a simple locking mechanism meaning that you can quickly and simply adjust the height of the stand to perfectly suit your needs. The effective snap frame also provides a perfect way to display your posters whilst remaining the ability to swap them with ease and this comes with a poster protector. Using a ball action mechanism, the frame itself can change aspect from landscape to portrait and even be rotated fully to give the ideal viewing angle for your end user.

The lightweight and portable abilities added to the sleek finish means this is a perfect stand for showrooms, retail, and corporate events. We recommend it being used indoors in places such as hotels, schools, and shops.

Also available with a larger, A3 frame as well as a stylish matte chrome finish with a silver anodised snap frame.
