Adhesive window document sleeve with white magnetic border

Sticky-backed document holder with plain white headers and footers: fix signs on glass doors, windows or walls - and change them whenever you like!

These great value adhesive document sleeves are an excellent option for displaying notices and information in a clean, tidy and professional way. The white borders draw attention to maximise your notice being seen. The front flap folds down to take your print and is then secured by the magnetic closure built into the top strip. The adhesive backing on both top and bottom strips lets you remove or reposition the Posterfix holders when required.

Change your printed paper signs quickly or add a temporary notice to a reception screen. No screws, nails or messy selotape. So simple, anyone can fit this sign holder, making it perfect for displaying your message.

- Easy to fit and simple to use - a very versatile poster holder for shop windows, offices, schools and hospitals.
- On windows or glass panels, the message shows both sides when using a double-sided poster (or two prints back to back).
- The white borders show on both sides for a professional look
- Branded Posterfix holders with custom-printed strips are also available to order.
- White Posterfix mounts are available in the standard sizes and are priced singly.

Large window adhesive sign holders

- A1 and A2-sized window signs are available to special order, Please note that a minimum order quantity of 50 pieces is required, which you can also have branded with your own logo. Please call our sales office to enquire about these larger sizes.
