- A7 window and glass poster holder last few remaining

Description

A5 Clear self cling window sign holder

This product has now been replaced with the superior Posterfix range.

- Posterfix window signs can be used portrait or landscape.
- Posterfix can be used successfully on glass doors, acrylic panels etc. They can be removed and re-applied many times so they are perfect for frequently changing signs. Simply smooth onto a suitable clean surface with firm thumb pressure along the top and bottom strips.
- On shop windows apply to the inside of the glass. You can insert two pieces of paper back to back if you want your message to display on each side.

As we only stock A7 in this range we suggest you consider our alternatives Noteplexx or Posterfix window mounts.

More Information	Window Wizards are also referred to as Window Magic poster holders. They work on glass, smooth acrylic, some aluminium composite panels with a brushed aluminium finish (Dibond). They have been used successfully for attaching POS and signs to shop windows, shop doors, car windows, fish display tanks, white goods such as fridges and washing machines. If in doubt about the application please test it first – the Window Wizard is a cheap poster display solution making it very cost effective in the right situation. The Window Wizard is intended for securing paper signs and notices including print-outs, posters and digital prints. The product can be re-used many times and it continues to cling well. The self-cling strips top and bottom can be freshened up if they get dirty by wiping with a well-wrung out soapy cloth and drying before re-use. There is a quite different magnetic window cleaning gadget called Window Wizard – if that's what you're looking for sorry, you've come to the wrong place. Have another go at Googling!
