Description

Excellent value grid ceiling hanging system for POS

This grid ceiling hanger kit combines a cable anchor attached to a metal Twister fitting which locks securely onto a typical store ceiling grid. The kit is specially put together for supermarkets hanging POS promotions and aisle signs, but can also be used for other suspended ceiling sign hanging applications.

The kit is supplied together with a 1m stop-end cable plus a suspension hook whose height can be set using the inbuilt self-locking clutch mechanism. Simply push the button to release the grip while fine adjustments are made.

- Superior quality grid ceiling cable anchor which will attach to a standard 1" (25mm) grid ceiling aka suspended ceiling.
- Height of hook can be adjusted as required.
- Factory crimped cable stopper on 1.5mm wire rope offers very rapid installation without needing any tools.
- Any excess wire can be coiled up or snipped off with cable cutters.
- This hanging kit is supplied with an enlarged straight hook (HOOK.ES) which is perfect for hanging pre-punched aisle signs in supermarkets.
- Suspended POS (point-of-sale) assets can be exchanged with ease.
